Dear Parents

- There will be signing up sheets for the parents' evenings on 8th and 9th February, in cloakrooms this Monday morning.
- We have a book fair in school today and all next week until Friday morning. Please come in and have a browse before and after school, it will be in the school hall.
- We had a successful coffee morning today, it was nice to see some parents in Kids' Zone after the children were dropped off, do come along next week if you are free.
- We are looking forward to the Pantomime of Jack and the Beanstalk next Wednesday, M&M productions are very good and do a really fun performance for the children.
- Year 4 are going to St Osmund's Middle school on Tuesday morning for a Science enrichment session, this is usually a hands-on fun experience for the children.

Father Barry will be in school on Wednesday 10th February for a short Liturgy at 2.45 p.m. All the children will be attending except Year 3 who will be having their session in the Life Education Classroom.
