

Literacy

Cloud Tea monkeys-speech punctuation between characters, Describing a tea plantation setting as an opener. Letters in role as Tashi the main character. Drama games as characters in the story. Debate and discussion about the rights of the child and child labour. Non chronological report on monkeys. Writing a story from India. Letters and diary entries as characters from Rama and Sita. Persuasive unit on travelling to India for a holiday.

French

vocabulary games and conversational skills

PE led by Mr Kent games and multiskill sessions

India-Autumn 2016

Science

eeth/solids and liquids. Teeth maps .Labelling teeth. Designing experiments to test teeth and their strength Graphs to compare teeth Investigating different teeth and their functions on a tooth line. What is a solid and a liquid? Can we change their states? Investigating solubility investigating how we can separate solids and liquids from each other

RE

Creation Prayers Saints and Feasts Sacraments Advent

ICT

Research skills. investigating Google maps, Design skills using word and publisher

Music

Listening to and appraising Indian and Asian music

Composing simple pieces using notation and Indian vocabulary

Geography and History

Labelling physical maps of India. Comparing tables on climate in India Differentiating between human and physical geographic features Comparing rural and urban India Using field work to investigate local area. Use of coordinates in map work. Looking at volcanoes Following the journey of tea as an Indian export .Investigating tourism as an industry in India Journey, Frequency maps. Looking at the history of trading links with India. Using historical sources to deduct clues on how the East India company impacted on Indian and British lives. Investigating the movement for Indian independence led by Gandhi. looking at the royal Indian shampoo servant to King George 1Vth,Brighton pavillion as a fashionable Indian residence.

Maths

Number and place value

Fractions and decimals

Measures

Shape

Logic and reasoning skills

Weekly multiplication and mental maths tests

Art/DT

Mendhi 3d hands, Simple batik, peacocks, observation drawings of peacock feathers Making Dahl, Investigating levers and linkages -designing a moving Ravanna The Taj Mahal at sunset, clay diva lamps, textured collage and poem on the blind men and the elephant