

What have these got to do with Easter?

- Why is the cross empty?
- Why is there a white garment on it?

This is a really heavy stone and the tomb is empty. What do you think the disciples thought when they got there and found Jesus had

For a follow on activity, perhaps you could start to draw a plan of your own Easter garden. Think about what you have around you when you are drawing your design. Include the Easter